Additional Rule for Impeachment Court—Drawback on Ship Material—Attendance of House Members at Impeachment Trial—Bounty Equalization Bill—Civil Appropriation Bill Passed—Freight and Passenger Tariff for Pacific Railroads.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

WASHINGTON, March 21, 1868.

SENATE.

PETITIONS, &C.

A memorial asking for an appropriation for repairing the levees on the Mississippi river. Referred to the Committee on Commerce.

Mr. SUMNER presented petitions from the colored men from various parts of Delaware, asking to be secured in their rights.

After some debate between Messrs. Saulsbury, and Sumner, the Judiciary Committee was, on motion of the latter, instructed to inquire into the authenticity of the petitions.

Mr. EDMUNDS moved to take up the bill regulating the presentation of bills to the President and return of the same.

IMPEACHMENT RULE.

Mr. DRAKE desired to have a new rule in the matter of impeachment taken up and disposed of before Monday next. He read it, as follows: "When the Senate is sitting upon the trial of an impeachment the presiding officer shall be addressed as Mr. President, and all papers submitted by either party, which in their nature should be addressed in terms to the tribunal, shall be addressed to it as to the Senate."

Mr. Edmunds' motion was lost.

DRAWBACK ON SHIP MATERIAL.

Mr. FESSENDEN introduced a bill to allow drawback on articles used in the construction of vessels. Laid on the table.

PERSONAL EXPLANATION.

Mr. CHANDLER made a personal explanation in regard to an error he had been led into by the Senator from Maine the other day, during the debate of a proposition to allow drawback used in ship building. He had supposed from their remarks ship yards were as deserted as the streets of Ninevah. He then read statistics in support of his assertion, that during the last two years there had been more ships built in Maine than during any two years previous.

Mr. DRAKE then offered his rule as given above.

Several objections were made on the Democratic side, and it went over.

Mr. HOWARD, from the Committee on Pacific Railroad, introduced a bill to regulate the filing of records of railroad companies. Laid over.

Mr. HENDERSON'S bill was taken up, authorizing the Peace Commissioners to conclude a treaty with the Navajo Indians, and appropriating $150,000 for their removal.

After a long debate the bill passed without amendment.

The Senate went into Executive Session and soon adjourned.

HOUSE OE REPRESENTATIVES.

IMPEACHMENT TRIAL.

Mr. BOUTWELL, from the Impeachment Managers, reported the following resolution:

Resolved, That on the day when the Senate shall sit for the trial of the President on the articles of impeachment exhibited by the House of Representatives, the House in Committee of the Whole will attend with the Managers at the bar of the Senate at the hour named for the commencement of the proceedings.

Mr. WOOD asked whether the resolution was to be understood as reading that the House shall remain in the Senate Chamber during the trial.

Mr. BOUTWELL said he did not understand that there was any compulsion, except what rested on each member by his own sense of propriety.

Mr. WOOD—There will be no session of the House during the trial.

The SPEAKER—There will not be under the resolution, while the trial is pending.

Mr. JENCKS suggested an amendment to the resolution, providing that on days of trial the House will meet at eleven, so as to have the morning hour.

Mr. BOUTWELL declined to accept the amendment.

The resolution was agreed to.

Mr. WASHBURNE, from the Committee on Naval Affairs, reported a bill to equalize bounties of soldiers, sailors and marines. Ordered to be printed and recommitted.

Mr. DONNELLY introduced a bill additional to the act giving lands to aid in the construction of railroads and telegraph lines from Lake Superior to Puget's Sound by Northern route. Referred to the Committee on Pacific Railroad.

Mr. WILSON, of Iowa, introduced a bill to provide a remedy for loss or destruction of judgments, records, or decrees appertaining to proceedings in the United States Court. Referred to the Judiciary Committee.

The House resumed the consideration of the sundry civil appropriation bill which passed.

The Senate bill directing the entry of a credit of $3,636 to the account of Major A. L. Brewer, late army paymastor, who lost his life by the explosion of a steamer on the Mississippi river, was passed.

The House joint resolutions to regulate the tariff for freight and passengers on the Union and Central Pacific Railroad and their branches, constituting the Secretary of War, Secretary of Interior, and Attorney General and Board of Commissioners to establish annually a tariff of freight and passengers on those roads not exceeding double the average rates on roads between the Altantic and Mississippi river, north of St. Louis, was taken up.

Mr. WASHBURNE, of Wis., spoke in favor of the resolution, complaining that the resources of the government were diverted to purely local enterprises; that government bonds had been made a second instead of a first lien on the road; that the passage of the bill of 1864 was procured by an expenditure of half a million in Washington by the Vice President of the road, and of the immense rates charged for passengers and freight by the Union Pacific road.

Mr. PRICE obtained the floor to reply, but yielded to a motion to adjourn.

Mr. WOOD offered an amendment to the bill relative to the rights of naturalized citizens abroad. Referred.

The bill reported by Mr. Washburne, Indiana, in relation to bounties, provides a bounty of eight dollars and thirty-three cents per month for actual service. for deducting of all bounties received from any source, and for payment of balance in script bearing six per cent. interest, which is to be receivable only in payment for public lands and not to be transferable.

The House, with the understanding that to-morrow be devoted to general debate, adjourned.

IRISH CHURCH ESTABLISHMENT.

LONDON, March 20.—Evening.—In the House of Commons to-day Mr. Gladstone announced that on Monday he would offer a motion that the House go into Committee on the state of the Irish Church establishment, and said when it was agreeable to the House and Ministry he wanted to press the consideration of the question.

QUESTION OF ALLEGIANCE.

In the course of the evening Wm. E Forester, member for Bradford, alluded to the state of the law in regard to the allegiance of British subjects, saying this matter especially demands attention in the bearing it had upon the relations of this country with the United States. He thought the time now ripe for arriving at at a definite understanding. He explained the law on the right of expatriation, and showed that at the present time two millions of the Queen's subjects were living in the United States as American citizens, in practical violation of these laws. It was the difference which rose between England and America in regard to the rights of adopted citizens which caused the war of 1812, and now the difference which still existed was counted on by the Fenians as likely again to embroil the two nations and thus further their treasonable designs. He urged Great Britain to abandon her claim of life allegiance in the case of emigrants to foreign countries, and advised the appointment of a mixed commission to settle the question forever.

Sir Robert Collier followed with a speech in support of the views of Mr. Forester.

Lord Stanley addressed the House, and speaking of the principles upon which the laws were founded, admitted the dogma of naturol allegiance was now obsolete, informed the House that the Government had already made advances for a settlement of the question at issue, and declared they were willing to meet the Government of the United States half way. There were many difficulties in the way of adjustment, but he was happy to say they were not regarded as inseperable. He stated that the Foreign Office was now in communication with Mr. Seward on the subject, and concluded by expressing his approval of the proposition of the member from Bradford, Mr. Forester, for a mixed commission.

Sir Raudell Palmer hoped the expatriated subjects of Great Britain would not be suffered to make war on their parent country.

TRANSATLANTIC MAIL SERVICE.

Mr. Baxter, member from Montrose, called attention to the Trans-Atlantic mail service, and moved the adoption of the following resolution:

That in the opinion of the House the present system of contracts, in which a fixed price is stipulated for the carrying of American mails, is wrong: that the pay should depend upon the effectiveness of the service, the performance of which should be open to all steamship lines.

Mr. Baxter said, in support of his resolution, that the Cunard Steamship Company received subsidies to the amount of millions of pounds, while other companies, which were as efficient, received nothing. He admitted the mail service was well performed by the Cunard line, but thought it had been done at too much cost.

Mr. Selater Booth, Secretary of the Treasury, promised the experiment of even competition would be tried, and hoped the member would withdraw his motion until the trial. Tue motion was withdrawn.

BRIEF TELEGRAMS.

—At Helena, Arkansas, on Thursday, Bart Tremer, Sheriff, attempted to arrest a negro who had killed three negroes recently in adjacent counties. The negro drew a revolver and shot the Sheriff through the body, knocking him off a mule. The negro then mounted Tremer's mule and fled to the hills. The negroes around the election polls, getting up a disturbance on the plea that a negro had been shot, enabled him to reach the hills, where he was found by a posse who had gone in pursuit. In their attempting to arrest him he again fired, wounding Mr. Sebastion. The posse held him at bay until a squad of soldiers arrived, who fired upon him, wounding him severely. In this condition he was carried back to Helena. None of the wounded were dead at last accounts.

Ruth, who shot and severely wounded Seymour Vaultaire, some time ago, at St. Louis, assaulted the latter on Fourth street, in that city, last night, with a cowhide and was shot by Vaultaire, the ball taking effect in Ruth's left breast, just below the shoulder. Vaultaire received several cuts on the face and hands, but was not seriously injured. The affair grew out of a letter recently published by Vaultaire, addressed to the Grand Jury, declining to prosecute Ruth for shooting him last winter, and which contained some reflections on Ruth and his wife, who was formerly Mrs. Vaultaire. ## METHODIST CONFERENCE

Pittsburgh Annual Conference of the M. E. Church.

[Special Correspondence of the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

GREENSBURG, March 20, 1868.

THIRD DAY'S PROCEEDINGS.

In my letter yesterday I had not time to call attention to the Temperance sermon preached on Monday evening by Rev. J. S. Lemmon. He was appointed at the session of the Conference held last year, and though his intimate friends expected a rich treat, yet their anticipations were more than realized. He preached a sermon full of mental muscle, abounding in passages of genuine eloquence. It was a sermon of great power, and in the estimation of good judges equalled the efforts of John B. Gough in his palmiest days.

Last night the pulpit of the Presbyterian Church was filled by Dr. H. Miller, pastor of the Smithfield Street Church in Pittsburgh, and that of the Methodist Church by the venerable S. M. Hudson. Both were honored with large audiences, as both are men of ability, highly esteemed by their brethren in the Conference and by thousands in and out of the Church.

This morning the Conference was opened with religious services conducted by Charles Thorn.

Deep interest is felt by the members of the Conference, and the laymen as well, in the election of delegates to the ensuing General Conference to be held in May, in the city of Chicago. The question of Lay Representation has been more or less discussed for years past, and will come before that body as one of its most important questions. The vote of yesterday, fixing Monday morning, at ten o'clock, as the time for the election, was reconsidered this morning, and the time changed to Saturday, at 9 o'clock, A. M. I will keep your readers advised of the result.

The examination of effective Elders was resumed, and the ministers of the Barnesville, McConnellsville, Cambridge, Steubenville, and Allegheny districts examined and passed.

J. L. Decus, J. J. Moffit, S. F. Minor, Dr. D. L. Dempsey, and Dr. J. L. Williams, the Presiding Elders, reported a year of great peace and prosperity in their respective districts.

We may add at this point that not only is the Conference one of the largest in the denomination, but one of the most effective. The esprit du corps of the body is of a high order. As a conference they have few peers in this connection.

Rev. J. T. Miller, of Ohio, Rev. J. K. Pliti, pastor of the Evangelical Lutheran Church, and Rev. F. S. De Hass, pastor of the Metropolitan Church, in Washington City, were introduced to the Conference.

The Committee on Lay Delegation presented the following report:

The Committee on Lay Delegation offer the following as their report:

We believe that the question of Lay Delegation in the Methodist Episcopal Church should, as soon as possible, be settled by definite legislation, and, under the guidance of the sanctified wisdom of preachers and people, we think satisfactory results may be reached.

The subject intimately concerns both ministry and laity, and in the disposition which is to be made of it, we recognize the propriety of the participation of the laity; therefore,

Resolved, That it is the sense of this Conference that Lay Delegation should be introduced into the Church whenever the vote of the laity shall show that they desire it, and that our Delegates be and are hereby instructed to use their influence with the next General Conference to provide for the introduction of Lay Delegation into the Church upon this condition.

J. A. Swaney, P. M. McGowan, F. Ellison, J. D. Fall, J. J. Jones, W. A. Stewart, A. L. Petty, W. B. Watkins, W. Lynch, Committee.

A motion was made to amend by striking out all in italics. This was laid on the table by a vote of 121 to 39. The report, after some earnest discussion, was adopted by a vote of 155 to 5.

The report of the Committee on the state of the Church was presented, read, and adopted. It condemns among other things, church fairs and festivals, and especially where lotteries are connected with them.

The third question, viz: Who are admitted in full connection? was taken up and Joseph N. Pershing, James Mechem, George Orhn, Thomas Patterson, William F. Smith, J. W. Hamilton, James E. Starkey, and C. W. Scott, having answered satisfactorily, the usual disciplinary questions were affectionately addressed by the Bishop, after which they were examined, passed, and admitted into full connection. The class is composed of young men who have given proof of their call to the work of the Christian ministry, and give promise of good service to the Church.

Rev. F. S. De Hass, formerly a member of the Conference, and now pastor of the Metropolitan Church, in Washington City, in process of erection by the Methodists, delivered a brief address in behalf of the interest he represents. Nearly every leading denomination in the United States is erecting a representative church edifice in the National Capital. Amos Kendall gave $100,000 towards the erection of a Baptist church. Caleb Cushing gave $25,000 towards the erection of an Episcopal church. Other princely benefactions have been made. Dr. De Hass claims that the house in process of erection by the Methodists will not only surpass any in the denomination, but any of the same kind in Washington city. Every third pew has been set apart for some particular State, a certain amount having been contributed by some citizen or citizens of the State on the condition that the pew be reserved for its representatives when visiting the city. The windows are intended to commemorate the honored names of the denomination. Five hundred dollars secures a memorial window to any Conference or particular congregation. All the windows have been spoken for. A superb silver communion set, worth one thousand dollars, has been donated by a lady of New York city. An organ worth fifteen to twenty thousand dollars, has been donated by a gentleman of Massachusetts. Other items might be mentioned, but these are sufficient to indicate to some extent the kind of the church contemplated, and the financial tact of the pastor.

The Conference has this year, as formerly, a daily paper issued. It is called the Conference Daily Journal, and is edited by Revs. W. H. Locke and T. N. Boyle, old typos. They get up a spicy sheet, which is highly prized by the members. OLIN.

THE MERRY LARK WAS UP AND SINGING.

The merry, merry lark was up and singing,
And the hare was out and feeding on the lea,
And the merry, merry bells below were ringing,
When my child's laugh rang through me.

Now the hare is snared, and dead beside the snow-yard,
And the lark beside the dreary winter sea,
And my baby in his cradle in the church-yard
Waiteth there until the bells bring me.

CHARLES KINGSLEY.

A DIRGE.

Call for the robin redbreast and the wren,
Since o'er shady groves they hover,
And with leaves and flowers do cover
The friendless bodies of unburied men.
Call unto his funeral dole
The ant, the field-mouse, and the mole,
To rear him hillocks that shall keep him warm,
And (when gay tombs are robbed) sustain no harm;
But keep the wolf far thence, that's foe to men
For with his nails he 'll dig them up again.

JOHN WEBSTER.

FROM ABROAD.

—Lord Brougham is writing an autobiography.

—Victor Hugo's new book is to be called "The Ideas of three revolutions."

—Twenty infants were suffocated in London, week before last, and four adults committed suicide.

—One hundred and forty-one ships carrying the British flag were lost during the month of January.

—Lieutenant Clark, an officer of the Canandaigua, died recently at Civita Vecchia, and was buried at Rome.

—The exhibition of the works of living artists is to open on the first of May in the Palace of Industry in Paris.

—The herring fishery off the coast of Scotland, on the North sea, side was excellent last season, and 147 boats were engaged in it.

—Two hundred and seventy-five million pounds of lucifer matches and twenty-four million pounds of salt are used annually in Paris.

—Paris has two regular horse flesh butchers, who exhibit show horses, just as show cattle is done by the more conservative slaughterers,

—An inter-colonial railway to cost eight millions of dollars has been proposed to the Government of the Dominion by some Montreal capitalists.

—Cardinal Donnet, Archbishop of Bordeaux, is the person who presented the name of Christopher Columbus to the Sacred College for canonization.

—The Prussian Government has ordered a nine inch breech-loading Armstrong gun which it intends to test, side by side, with a Prussian cannon of the same calibre.

—Lady Helen Fitz Maurice, whom we have already mentioned as the greatest beauty in England, has left that isle of fogs and gone to Paris pour passer le temps.

—The cotton mills of Mr. Spetz, at Issenheim, (Flout, Phine,) have been completely destroyed by fire. They were valued at sixty thousand dollars and employed one hundred and twenty hands.

—Seven of the principal Austrian nobles, including the Princes Von Salm and Lobkowickz, have resigned their seats as hereditary members of the Upper House, on account of the recent radical changes.

—Eustache de St. Pierre, the chief of the gallant band of citizens who were saved from sacrifice by the pleadings of Queen Phillippa, is to have a statue erected to his memory by the present citizens of Calais.

—The present owner of Dante's house at Florence refuses to sell it to the city and refuses to take care of it himself. The consequence is that the house, which is nearly seven hundred years old, is going to ruin as fast as possible.

—The spring duelling season has opened in Paris by a rencontre between an attache of Peruvian Legation and a son of the Paraguayan Minister. The attache had a sword run through his arm, which, without doing much harm, finished the duel.

—The editor of the radical paper in Pesth, the capital of Hungary, who was imprudent enough to publish the letter of Kossuth to the electors of Waitzen, has been condemned by the jury to pay a fine of two thousand florins, and to undergo one year of imprisonment.

—The thermometer was down to twenty-two degrees below zero in St. Petersburg this winter, and quite a number of droschki drivers were frozen while sitting on their boxes. The gas all over the town was frozen up, and the Grand Dukes distributed hot tea in front of the various palaces.

—Although so celebrated, the University of Bonn is one of the very youngest of the great German Colleges, it will celebrate its one hundredth anniversary, and is going to spend eight thousand thalers on that auspicious occasion. The Universary at Prague is the most ancient in Germany, having been founded in 1348, and in fifty years is said to have had 30,000 students.

EPHEMERIS.

—Peach trees are in bloom in Western Tennessee.

—A musical and theatrical entertainment was given two weeks ago at Crystal Palace.

—Fanny Janauscheck has, it is said, cleared a very neat little fortune in the West, amounting to something like $50,000. She deserves it.

—The Colorado mines are producing about $140,000 per month; pretty good for Colorado, but the Pennsylvania mines are doing better than that.

—A new hoop skirt manufactory has been established at Greencastle, Indiana; a little late we should think for them to think of doing a very extensive business in so bustling a trade.

—Mr. Wm. D. Lewis, a young gentleman well known in Pittsburgh, has arrived safely in Salt Lake City, where he has joined a party of the Pacific Railroad engineers.

—The last neat sport in Louisville was a fight between a dog and a wild-cat. The dog got the cat by the throat and would have killed it if the ring-keeper had not made him let go, by "chawing his hind foot."

—At last Prince Lucian Bonaparte has received his Cardinal's hat. The star of Bonaparte is again in the ascendancy; the Napoleonic idea has taken one long stride. If the Emperor's influence can bring it about, the death of Pius IX will again advance the new Cardinal.

—Ben Bolt was first sung during the war with Mexico. It was introduced in a drama called "The Battle of Buena Vista," and the old Pittsburgh Theatre had the honor of first hearing the song which has now a world wide reputation.

—Californians think, or say that they think, that a trip over the Rocky mountains will one day be considered more to be desired than a trip over the Alps. Either one is almost too great a stumbling block to trip over easily.

—"The English papers in China are in spasms of jealousy over the appointment of Mr. Burlingame." We thought so, in fact we are in spasms of wonder at the English in China because they did not immediately order a flotilla of gun-boats to bombard Pekin or Hong Kong or some other equally defenceless place. To be sure Pekin is hard to get at, but so is Theodore of Abyssina, and this especial honor to our minister is surely a tremendous insult to England who has a tilted Ambassador in China. Well! it don't matter much, but, as we said before, we are in spasms of wonder.

—Olive Logan is irrepressible. She has tried her hand at every species of Bohemianism that a woman is ever given to, but always seems to cling to the infatuation that she was born to be an authoress. She has one fault in this line which will preclude her from favor. She invariably assumes an immense superiority over all of her readers—an assumption which is especially repulsive to those who know her absolute inferiority in social standing, brains and everything but "brass." She has written a new novel called the "Artist's Dream," which probably will bristle with the old faults and have some new ones.

—The Chicago Tribune ventilates the story about Charles Dickens' sister-in-law very thoroughly. The lady in question is a confirmed invalid, with several children, and yet has to keep a few boarders in order to be able to live. Among them is a cousin of her husband's, and, with the exception of her children, the only blood relative that the novelist has in America. Mrs. Dickens wrote to Boz offering him her humble hospitalities if he should come to Chicago. In reply she received a formal note referring her to Mr. Dolby. The story about $5,000 being sent to Mrs. Dickens is false, as not one cent has been sent, nor expected. The Tribune suggests as an appropriate toast at the Dickens banquet in New York: "The Relatives of Charles Dickens in America."

SEWING GIRLS.

A writer in the Revolution gives the following sad picture of the life led by sewing girls and women in New York. It is unfortunately only too true:

Of the thirty thousand women now out of employment in this wilderness of a city, twenty thousand are said to be sewing girls. There are, first, the shop girls, who sit in long rows, up and down the length of great dreary work-shops, or pile in promiscuously in less pretentious establishments. Then there are the dressmakers, the cloak-makers, tailoresses, seamstresses and takers-in of shop work. A picture of one of the vast establishments where shop girls work, will do for all the rest. Large, well-lighted show-rooms, attentive salesmen, watchful floor-walkers, spry cash boys—all these will the eager buyers find in the lower rooms. Down stairs to see evening dresses, where brilliant gas jets flame out to show the effect; up stairs to see the bargains in cloaks and shawls; wherever they go, the same genial light and soft radiance is thrown. The workroom is quite a different place to the show-rooms however. On the third floor are the first work-rooms. They are large and well lighted, though but poorly ventilated. The impression made upon one's mind is, that a breath of fresh air has not entered that close atmosphere for a long time, and yet the windows are thrown up as high as they will go every night at sweeping hour. But one must remember, when sixty human beings, some of them with diseased lungs and horrid breaths, work in these rooms for ten hours daily, that ventilation is almost impossible. These are the lace workers and muslin finishers. They prepare those delicate articles of lingerie which so win one's heart from the window or case where they hang. Infant's robes are made, babies baskets are thoroughly prepared here. The girls look tired even at an hour before noon. They bend over shockingly, and nearly all of them have sore eyes and sorer hearts, poor things. Six dollars a week is the average price made here. Some there are who make nine. The majority only make five. The fourth floor, one immense room, running over the whole floor from back to front and from side to side, is occupied by the cloak-makers. There are four long tables down the centre of the room, and smaller ones placed a little to the side. Here, during the brisk season, ninety-five girls work. Now the number cannot be more than twenty. The women working here seemed more cheerful than those on the lower floor; but they, too, are overtaxed, and allow themselves to die by inches, just because they fancy they are making an honest livelihood. They average more than the muslin workers. Some of them can make ten dollars a week, but these are old hands at the business. On the fifth floor is a smaller work room than either of the others. It is devoted to the making up of plain underwear for ladies and children. There are about twenty-five or thirty employees here, pale, wan and sickly, but strange enough, more contented with their lot than those of either of the floors below. I asked one old lady, whose age would surely entitle her to rest, how she liked to work there? She replied, "I thank God that I can take care of myself in old age." She is seventy two years of age, and earns three dollars a week, God help her! I could not help wondering how in the world she managed to reach the fifth story with her poor, rheumatic limbs and feeble strength. As if divining my thoughts, she said:

"To be sure, it's a good ways up, and I have to come very slowly; but after I once get here there's a good rest for me until night." A little creature of thirteen, but who looked no more than nine, was basting hems in a corner. She was only learning to sew, the said, and had been there two weeks, but in a fortnight more she would be paid for working. Upon asking her "how much," she answered with a proud inflection of voice, "five dollars a month." The faces of the employes throughout this establishment generally wore a shocked, startled expression, as if they were forever on the rack. A great majority seemed to be suffering with lung and throat diseases. Poorly paid, illy-clothed and fed, they go on from one year's end to another.

Car Heater and Moderator,

For SMOKE AND HOT AIR FLUES, dispensing with the use of Stoves and Fires in or about the Passenger or Baggage Cars, with the attachment to graduate the heat to any temperature that may be desired without the possibility of firing the car or cars to which the Jacket may be attached.

Having obtained of the United States Letters Patent for a Safety Jacket which is warranted to resist the most intense heat that may be applied to it in its position and purpose for which it is intended. It is a sure protection from accidents by fire, originating from defective flues, or where iron pipes are used as conductors for smoke or heat. It is applicable to all piping that may become overheated, and is warranted to give perfect satisfaction where wood or other combustible material may be placed in close proximity thereto. I am now ready to apply my invention to stores, dwellings, factories, ships, steamboats, railroad cars, &c., wherever pipes as conductors are made dangerous by being overheated and security desired. I will sell, on application, rights to manufacture or to use the above invention; also, territorial rights, to such as may wish to engage in selling privileges, either by State or county.

Financial Matters in New York.

Gold Closed at 138½@138⅝.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

NEW YORK, March 20, 1868.

MONEY AND GOLD.

Money very active and firm at 7 per cent. for call leans. Sterling steady at 109¼a 109¾ for first class bills. Gold without material operation, opening at 138⅝, declining to 138½, and closing at 138¼a138⅝.

GOVERNMENTS.

Government stocks strong. Henry, Clews & Co. furnish the annexed 4:30 quotations: Coupons '81, 111¼; do. '62, 110¼a110 3-8; do. '64, 108a108¼; do. '65, 108¼a108⅝; do. new, 107; do. '67, 107¾a107¼; Ten Forties, 101a 101¼; Seven Thirties, 106a106¼.

STOCKS.

Railway market lower in the early part of the day, but afterwards there was a general improvement, which, however, was not long sustained. Western shares are all firm and the market was generally buoyant in the early part of the afternoon. New York Central touched 125¼, and Erie 72⅝, but afterwards there was a reaction to 122½ for Central, and 71 for Erie. The balance of railways, especially western shares, are all up in sympathy with the rise in New York roads, and did not participate in the reaction.

Canton, 47a47 1-2; Cumberland, 31a33; Wells & Fargo's Express, 35a36; American, 68a69; Adams, 74 3-4a75; United States, 68a 70 1-2; Merchants Union, 34 1-2a34 7-8; Quicksilver, 20 3-8a21; Mariposa, 6a7; Pacific Mail, 109 3-4a10; Atlantic, 89 1-4a90; Western Union Telegraph, 34 1-8a34 1-4; New York Central, 122 1-2a122 5-8; Erie 70 3-4 a70 7-8; do. preferred, 75a76; Hudson, 136a136 1-2; Reading, 92 1-4a92 1-2; Ohio and Mississippi, 29 7-8a30; Wabash, 49 1-2a49 3-4; St. Paul, 54 1-8a54 1-4; do prefered, 69 3-4a69 7-8; Michigan Southern, 88 7-8a89; Illinois Central, 136 1-2; Pittsburgh, 90 3-4a91; Toledo, 104 3-8a104 3-4; Rock Island, 93 1-4a93 1-2; Northwestern, 63a65, do prefered, 73 3-4a73 1-8; Fort Wayne 102 1-4a102 3-8; Hartford and Erie 13 7-8a14; Terre Haute, 44; Chicago and Alton preferred, 132; Hannibal and St. Joe preferred, 81; Columbus, 105; Missouris, 87 1-8; New Tennessee 65 3-4;

SUB-TREASURY RECEIPTS.

The Receipts in the Sub-Treasury were $1,515,816; Payments, 8,712,414; Balance, $100,815,812. At the close of banking hours Money showed a partial relaxation from the stringency prevalent through the day, apparently in sympathy with the proposed movement by the Treasury for easing the market. The Asaistant Treasurer has proposed to the Clearing House to issue to an extent not exceeding $10,000,000 three per cent. clearing house certificates, available for the settlement of clearance between banks, and so far a legal tender. He proposes to exchange them, either for compound interest notes of the May issue, or seven-thirties, allowing for the latter 106. This would afford material relief to banks, and the offer is quite likely to be extensively accepted.

RIVER NEWS.

Our rivers continue to recede steadily at this point with fifteen feet in the channel by the Allegheny, and fourteen by the Monongahela marks. At Oil City the former river was reported falling to-day with eleven feet in the channel. The weather yesterday was cloudy and unsettled, and in the evening it turned quite cold.

The arrivals include the Glasgow and Messenger, from St. Louis; Argosy, from Cincinnati, and the Robt. Moore, from Portsmouth. The Messenger brought up a large amount of corn which is destined for eastern markets.

The Robt. Moore, for Portsmouth, was the only departure for below.

The Lorena, Capt. Shuman, will positively leave for St. Louis to-day, as will also the Kate Robinson, Capt. Robt. Robinson, for Cincinnati and Louisville. These are both tip-top boats, and they will both leave here with good trips.

The Allegheny River packet Echo left for Oil City last night. The Echo is the first packet that has left for Oil City since December, and she had a good freight list and quite a number of passengers.

The Argosy will leave for Cincinnati on Wednesday next, and regularly thereafter every week on that day. Capt. Vandergrift is still in command, with Mr. W. H. Scott in the office.

The Yorktown, in command of the veteran Capt. Wash. Ebbert, will positively leave for St. Louis and the Upper Missouri to-day—clear up to Fort Benton. The new steamer Andrew Ackley, Capt. Bolie, is next in turn for the gold regions.

The R. C. Gray, Capt. W. B. Anderson, is announced for Memphis and New Orleans, and the Armerica, Capt. Adam Poe, is up for Nashville. The Wild Duck and barges, Capt. Anawalt, are filling up steadily for St. Louis.

The Messenger, Capt. Jesse Dean, will at once commence loading for the Upper Mississippi, and will take her departure next week. The Messenger is in all respects, one of the best boats that comes to the landing, and is so regarded among steamboatmen.

A St. Louis telegram, under date of Wednesday, says: Weather beautiful, cool and clear. River steadily rising, with 15 feet to Cairo. The damages on the river by the storm on Monday night include the Belle of Pike, about $3000, which nearly foundered; Columbia about $800, and Elkhorn about $1500, both losing chinneys. The Lucy Bertram was driven against the bank and let her wheel down, she being towed into port in a crippled condition. The Columbia and Melnotte came in safely. The Adam Jacobs, at the wharf, parted all her chinney cross-guys. Several steamers in this vicinity were torn from their moorings and drifted across the river. The towboat Storm lost her chimneys. Flour is 20c per bbl to New Orleans. Several boats have withdrawn from the mountain fleet.

A merchant of Montana came recently to St. Louis to purchase goods. He thinks that there are many steamboat captains in St. Louis—mountain boat captains especially. He sees them in, all and around the Southern Hotel. He seen them everywhere. He was on the street and, espying a friend over the way, called out to him in a loud voice, "Ho Captain!" He was instantly surrounded by at least thirty captains of mountain boats. M—— is glad to preceive such premonitions of a large trade to the Upper Missouri this year.

The Memphis Avalanche, of the 15th, says: The suit of Latimer vs. City of Columbus, for the recovery of damages for the seizure and confiscation of the steamer B. P. Cheney during the war, will be called in the United States District Court, in Paducah, next Monday. If we are not mistaken, Mr. Latimer's brother-in-law sold the above steamer to the Confederate Government and received pay for the same. A large shanked cuss known as Slater delivered over the boat at Columbus, Ky., and received the money for her in this city. After the fall of Columbus he endeavored to force the Federal Government to pay him for the boat.

Capt. Silas Haight proposes to put the Countess in the St. Louis and Chester trade. Capt. Amos Abrams, of the Victory, is dangerously ill at New Orleans. He went into hospital there and has been well taken care of.

The Cincinnati Commercial, of Thursday, says: The St. Charles has been telegraphed to take the place of the Magnolia in the Maysville trade.

The St. Paul Press, of Saturday, says: Gentlemen who came down from Mankato yesterday inform us that the ice in the Minnesota river is rapidly breaking up and moving out. The ice went out at St. Peter on Thursday night, and the ferry commenced running Friday. Yesterday the ice was running at Mankato. Our informant crossed the river in a skiff at LaSeur. The Blue Earth river is reported to have broken up, and is now running out.

A Leavenworth paper, of March 14th, says: The old Muddy is at a stand, with a prospect of a further rise. The W. J. Lewis, Capt. Herndon, came up early yesterday morning, and put out for St. Louis. She reports the channel in a fair condition. She had no trouble on the way up. The river was rising below Grand river. She reports that the Hiram Wood had abandoned the Nymph No. 2, having been unable to raise her.

We clip the following from the Cincinnati Gazette, of Thursday: The Sallie, loaded at Pittsburgh mostly with St. Louis freight, and thence bound for Fort Benton, left here last evening. Her pilots are Capt. Charles Beers and Jas. Kane. The Delaware, Capt. Richard Calhoon, expected to have her chimneys in place so as to leave for Nashville last evening. She received considerable freight here. Her pilots are Capt. Calhoon and Dory Dunn. The Emma No. 3 arrived from New Orleans with her chimneys so badly damaged by the storm as to be rendered useless. The storm struck her at the foot of Twelve Mile Island.

We clip the following from the St. Louis Republican, of Tuesday: A suit has been commenced in the United States District Court by the Globe Mutual Insurance Company against Wm. M. McPherson, in which the amount claimed is $24,035 10. The libel sets forth that, on the 12th of February, 1867, the steamer White Cloud started from port to New Orleans, having as a portion of her cargo shipments by the following parties: Sella & Co., goods to the value of $7,155 40, for various Southern ports; by Lamb, Quinlin & Co., to the amount of $5,950 70; by John F. Tolle $880, all of which were insured in the Globe Mutual for the amounts named. It is further stated that the said steamer, through the gross negligence of the officers in charge, was run against the partially sunken steamer Belle Memphis, near the foot of Anna street, and sunk in fifteen minutes, the cargo proving a total loss. The insurance was paid by the Globe, and suit is now brought to recover the amount from the owner of the boat, it being alleged that the accident did not result from any of the perils or dangers accepted in the bills of lading.

In the same Court a suit is pending, in which the Missouri Wrecking Company is the libellant, and Wm. Smith, Isaac D. Fulkerson, Thos. C. Stephens and Chas. C. Ferguson, the respondents. The suit arises out of the sinking of the steamer Mollie Dozier, in October, 1866, near Council Bluffs, Iowa. It appears the Missouri Wrecking Company entered into a contract with the parties named, representing the owners of the boat and certain Insurance Companies, to raise the sunken steamer, it being agreed that nothing should be paid in case of failure. The company was partially successful in the enterprise, and claims that $10,000 would be a reasonable compensation for the property saved. On this claim credits are given for three amounts—$3,566 32, $930 35, and $1,031,68.

GOLD closed yesterday in New York at 138⅝.

AN UNACCOUNTABLE BLUNDER of the Reading Clerk of the House of Representatives at, Harrisburg on Thursday, led to the telegraphed report in yesterday's GAZETTE that Mr, HERR, from the Judiciary, had recommended against the passage of the Senate joint resolutions relative to the impeachment of the President. The facts are that Mr. HERR's report was against an impeachment resolution, but concerning a very different officer, viz: one BUDD, a magistrate in Mercer county. The Clerk, perceiving that it related to impeachment, seemed to assume that it concerned the "humble individual," and announced it by the title accordingly. The telegraphic reporter of course followed the announcement.

MARYLAND is also deeply interested in the recent decision of the Supreme Court declaring the railway capitation taxes unconstitutional. The Baltimore and Ohio road has for years paid into the Treasury of that State large annual sums levied as taxes on passengers over its Washington branch. The Baltimore journals regard the decision as having a special bearing on their State legislation, under which this tax has been levied. The American observes that the decision, although coming at a moment when the State needs all its resources, is not to be regretted, since the system thus judicially exploded, is vicious both in principle and practice. Our cotemporary also intimates that the States' rights doctrines of a majority of the Maryland Legislature will not lead to any attempt to set this unwelcome decision at defiance.

It is pleasant to think that a day is at last approaching when a citizen can visit the Federal Capital without being robbed on the road by the tax gatherers of other States, who pretend to have law for rifling his pockets. Certainly one needs all he can command, either in patience or in funds, to stand the extortions of Washington itself.

PERHAPS stock gambling was never presented in more odious features than in the legal investigation now progressing in the city of New York relative to the managemene of the Erie Railway Company. It appears that the men to whose hands this great trust was confided, have not only been engaged in gambling in the stock it was their duty to protect, but have persistently formed combinations for the purpose of depressing its market value, to the great detriment of the stock holders, Nor is this all. They have even resorted to what is at best a most questionable issue of new stock, to a vast amount, in order to perpetuate their control of the propeity, Pursued by the officers of the law, several of the Directors of the Company, constituting, we believe, a majority of the Board, have fled out of the Stafe into New Jersey, to avoid legal responsibility for their acts. Such malfeasance in office, unblushingly pursued, and by men who claim eminent positions in social and religious circles, illustrates the extent to which stock gambling has perverted the moral sense of large and influential sections of the community, and points to the necessity for enactments making such transactions penal in a very high degree.

As many as ten persons have been designated, by the Republicans of as many different States, for the Vice Presidential nomination of the Chicago National Convention. It is probable that half a dozen more names will yet be added to the list. Of course, only one of these can be taken. Who that one will be, it is idle to conjecture. Tnis, however, is certain, that the National Convention will choose with the greatest circumspection. Three stupendous betrayals by Vice Presidents stand out conspicuously in the history of the politics of the United States. The point of danger is disclosed. A new and untried man in the Republican ranks will not be accepted. Nor yet a man who has evinced any degree of uncertainty in his course. The place demands an individual who is a Republican not from policy but from conviction; who has exhibited marked steadiness in his career, and a promptness and certainty which has not been baffled or turned aside. The Republican masses will accept only such a candidate, and there is not the slighest probability that the Convention will entertain for one moment the idea of selecting one that does not meet the requirements of the case.

HON. C. M. CLAY, our Minister to Russia, has resigned his position and will soon return home. We trust there is no truth in the rumor that he is charged with unfair transactions in the stock of the Russo-American Telegraph, and that the charges have not been satisfactorily answered. Cassius M. Clay left this country an honorable and high minded gentleman, and we are very sure that he will return to it with a character unstained.

THE TRIAL.

Mr. JOHNSON's answer is to be filed on Monday; that is to say, so much of it as his counsel shall choose to prepare. It is already intimated that they will go to the Court with a document purporting to be but a partial answer, and, asserting want of time as a plea, willl demand another delay for further preparation. We are confident that the Court will see no good cause for granting such an application. From the earliest day, when impeachment was first proposed in the House, Mr. Johnson has fully understood every point that could be made against him. The articles comprise no new charge, no specification of unfamiliar facts, no deductions of which he could be unaware. The facts charged in the two articles last added, with his own line of defense upon them, have been perfectly familiar to himself, and to his counsel, as well as to all intelligent citizens of the land for many months. The attention of all has been drawn to them, not only by a sense of their intrinsic importance, but by the previous unsuccessful efforts of Representatives to procure his impeachment upon them. He has for months known just what charges could be made, and the ingenuity of himself and his Democratic friends has long since exhausted the limited range of argument and fact to disprove them. As for the articles based upon his violation of the Tenure of Office Act, he was as well able to meet them at his appearance on the 13th, as he could be with a further delay of a twelve-month. The facts and the evidence on both sides are in a nut shell. How, then can the ends of justice, impartial as it should be between accuser and accused, be promoted by a delay which is needless, which will gain nothing meritoriously for either side, and which could only serve to prolong and embarrass still more the most critical emergencyto which our Federal existence could be exposed?

Impartially, the Court will only grant such extension for causes assigned; fortunately, it will be enabled to require good cause to be shown. No man of intelligence can anticipate my likelihood that Mr. Johnson's counsel, even with all their eminent ability, will be able to present reasons, new and cogent, for further delay. The entire case has been long and well understood by President, Congress and people, and no lawyer lives who can add an idea or an argument to the stock in which millions of thinkers, of every variety of intellect and with every shade of political bias, have exhausted the field.

We may expect therefore to see Mr. Johnson's answer put in—with or without a "protest"—on Monday next. The Managers will file their replication on the Wednesday after; the trial will be regularly entered upon as early as Monday the 30th, and will proceed in order to its conclusion. It is understood that the Managers have fully completed their preparations, and that both Houses of Congress will lay aside all general legislation, until the trial is ended. Were the House to adopt a resolution to that effect, it would satisfy the people that no unreasonable and needless delays in the discharge of the more important duty, are to stand in the way of the public justice. An express resolution is better than any "virtual understanding." The proposition offered by Mr. Boutwell yesterday, and which had not been telegraphed when the preceding lines were written, is evidently intended to meet the case.

RELIEF FOR OUR MANUFACTURERS.

When the House Ways and Means Committee, at an early period of the session, received from the Executive Departments their various estimates for the appropriations required for the ensuing fiscal year, it was found that these estimates would bear a very large reduction without injury to the public interests. The sums to be granted for the army, the navy aud the civil service, both foreign and domestic, were therefore judiciously and decisively cut down, to the end of economy and retrenchment, and the Committee felt authorized to announce to the House and the country that, by these reductions and by other savings in expenditure, it would be practicable to reduce the burthen of taxation to the extent of one hundred and fifty millions of dollars. This announcement was hailed with general satisfaction by the people. Of course, such a reduction in the amount of our annual taxes was justly regarded as presenting the first legitimate opportunity for removing those burthens upon our productive industry which only our enormous war expenditure had justified, and which were first and foremost entitled to relief whenever our improving finances should allow it.

In accordance with the budget as announced by the Committee, the House two weeks since passed a bill relieving the greater part of our domestic manufacturers from the five per cent. tax heretofore resting upon them, and sent the bill up to the Senate. We were apprehensive that the latter body would hesitate to sustain a measure of this decisive character; not because it had any feature of injustice, but in the interests of the Treasury and from some fear of too great a reduction in the public income. But the Senate has not justified these fears, having passed the bill, with some amendments on which the concurrence of the Houes will be necessary. By one of these amendments, the tax on gas, wines and all manufactures of tobacco is retained unchanged, and that on the products (except gas) of coal and petroleum is reduced one-half. Another amendment reduces the tax on sales of non-enumerated articles. Those amendments ought to be, and probably will be, accepted by the House. An effort to secure further concessions at this time would, we fear, put the whole measure in jeopardy. Petroleum, for example, demands an entire release and ought to have it, but it would be the wisest thing to secure what is already offered and await another and more favorable movement for complete justice. Secretary McCulloch has already made strong representations against the pending bill, fearing that it would seriously cripple the public revenues. Were the appropriation bills all safely through, and upon the basis first announced by the Ways and Means Committee, he would have less cause for alarm. But those bills are yet pending, and he prefers naturally a certainty to an uncertainty. If the House, therefore, delays its acceptance of the Senate amendments, we shall consider the measure as liable at any moment to a defeat which, we think, may and should be safely and promptly averted by its immediate concurrence.

IT IS POSSIBLE that Mr. Vanderbilt, the Napoleon of railway wars, may have found his Waterloo on the broad track of the Erie, and his Wellington in Mr. Drew. The latter's retreat to New Jersey was a masterly piece of strategy, and thus entrenched under a different jurisdiction and "occupying and possessing" the official command of the railway itself, his great rival can neither dislodge him by a direct attack nor turn his position on the flank. In the meantime, powerful interests, which heretofore have suffered defeat from the Commodore's successful aggressions, are rallying to Drew's support, and an immense combination of capital is effectively bearing the stock market, and so damaging his antagonist, who is loaded with Erie stock and contracts for purchase at figures far above the present rates, that, it is said, his losses must already be counted by millions, and Wall street hourly expects the announcement that his brokers will retire. The equally potent element of public sympathy is also against him, for the people at large begin to see that their interests would not be promoted by his success in adding control of the Erie to his present monopoly of the New York Central with its connecting lines from Albany to the metropolis. Let him succeed in his contest with Drew, and only one line, the Pennsylvania Central, would stand in the way of his absolute mastery over all the great thoroughfares between the West and the seaboard, and this he would also, of course, soon endeavor to control.

A MEMPHIS Judge closes his Court, assigning as the reason that other Courts of the city interfere with his judicial prerogatives. Why should not his brother Judges in that lively town follow the example? Memphis, with no courts at all, could by no possibility, be worse off than it has been for a year past. Murder and outrage have constituted the daily amusement of its citizens and the administration of the law has been nothing but a wretched farce. Such courts as that city seems to have had were evidently worse than none. Abolish them all, and the law-abiding citizens, at present a cowed and helpless majority no doubt, would then realize their situation, and speedily devise an efficient remedy for a state of things which is securing for Memphis a most unenviable notoriety. Let them try the experiment!

THE Washington correspondent of the Boston Post (Dem.) has the following:

The delicate position of the Supreme Court at this time is the topic of general discussion in all circles of society. It seems to be well settled by the decision of the Court itself (see case of Chism vs. State of Georgia) that the repeal of the statute giving jurisdiction prevents the rendition of a judgment, although the case might have been submitted to the Court. Hence the act which was carried through Congress last week cuts off the judgment in the McArdle test case, unless a decision is given by the Court in advance of that act becoming a law. This, it is believed by many, the Court will do. It is well ascertained that Justice, Chase, Nelson, Grier, Clifford, Davis and Field believe the Reconstruction acts to be unconstitutional, and that Justice Swayne and Miller alone sustain their constitutionality. It will then be for these six Judges to say whether they will deliver the opinion, or by procrastination allow Mr. Schenck to use his Congressional scissors on their wings. The decision is made up and they have the power and the right to deliver it.

IN SPEAKING of the probable departure of Gen. Hancock from New Orleans, the Picayune has the following misty paragraph:

"There are more reasons than one for deprecating the leaving our district by Gen. Hancock, apart from our own necessities and the wisdom and statesmanship displayed by him in the management of affairs so difficult and perplexing, wherein the obedience of the soldier to superior commands must be blended with the administration of the law and an effort to relieve the necessities of an impoverished and oppressed people. Not the least among these is, that if taken from this place of trial and mortification, he is likely to be transferred to another, whose difficulties have been greatly increased by blundering mismanagement, and where, at the best, the way is beset by danger—where a man of honor, courage, humanity, and the highest qualities of judgment and intelligence, may be sacrificed upon the mistakes and misfortunes of others.

IN THE course of a colloquy in the House, touching the repeal of the law of '67 which gave to the Supreme Court jurisdiction of the McArdle and similar cases, Mr. Schenck said:

"Sir, I have lost confidence in the majority of the Supreme Court of the United States. Is not that plain enough? I believe that they usurp power whenever they dare to undertake to settle questions purely political, * * arrogating to themselves the settlement, not merely of judicial but of political questions; trampling upon the principle of the decision made in the case of the Dorr rebellion, and upon every other decision of that kind, the majority of them are proceeding, step by step, to the usurpation of jurisdiction which does not belong to them.

If the people would remain free they must conduct themselves as freemen should. Let them not be prevented by the love of peace from defending the liberties which should be dearer to them than life itself.—Louisville Courier.

It is difficult to understand exactly what course our Democratic cotemporary would advise in defending liberties so dear. Is it bullets or ballots? Kentucky has beon so long undecided upon that point, that our curiosity is quite natural.

THE Confederate Constitution provided that:

The principal officers in each of the executive departments, and all persons connected with the diplomatic service, may be removed from office at the pleasure of the President.

Andrew Johnson got hold of the wrong Constitutioh when he attempted to remove Secretary Stanton.

LETTER FROM SECRETARY M'CULLOCH.

The following important letter from Secretary M'Culloch has been addressed to the Senates Finance Committee:

TREASURY DEPARTMENT,
March 16, 1868.

DEAR SIR:—The abolition of the duty on cotton will reduce the revenue some $20,000,000. The bill which has recently passed the House, and is now before the Senate, abolishing, after the 1st of May next, the taxes on manufactures and other productions imposed by sections ninety-four and ninety-five of the act of June 30, 1864, and enumerated in Table H in the report of the Commissioner of Internal Revenue for 1867, pages 335, 336 and 337, with certain exceptions, will, it has been estimated, effect a reduction of some $60,000,000 on the basis of last year's revenues.

"It must also be borne in mind that this large reduction of the revenues from the internal industries of the country will have the effect of reducing the general level of prices throughout the country, and thus tend to interrupt and to lessen importations, and, therefore, to diminish the customs revenues. A considerable portion of the large revenues from customs received during the last two fiscal years, and which are still maintained, are due, in no inconsiderable extent, to the fact that the high prices in this country have made our market a desirable one for the sale of foreign productions. So great a reduction of prices as will be effected by the contemplated legislation cannot, I repeat, but have a tendency to reduce importations, and, consequently, to impair the revenue from customs.

"Should the bill referred to become a law, I think it may be fairly estimated that the total revenues for the next fiscal year will fall from a hundred to a hundred and twenty millions below the estimates made in my last annnal report.

"It is exceedingly desirable that taxes should be reduced, and I should hail with pleasure the proposed reduction, if I felt assured that it would be accompanied with a corresponding reduction of expenditures. I am free to say that I am greatly apprehensive that such a reduction of expenditures will not be made, and that the revenues of the country for the next fiscal year, if the bill now before the Senate, or in the hands of your committee should become a law, will be insufficient to meet the interest on the public debt and the current expenses of the Government. I earnestly ask that the Finance Committee will give the subject careful consideration in all its bearings before reporting favorably on the bill referred to. Nothing could be more disastrous to the credit of the Government at the present time than such a reduction of taxes as would create a necessity for an increase of the public debt. Very truly yours,

H. MCCULLOUGH,
"Secretary of the Treasury."

A WASHINGTON letter of the 18th says:

The Democrats and Johnson men who have been foiled in their efforts to corrupt members of the Senate, and to get an expression of opinion from them against impeachment, have engaged in the discreditable work of trying to influence Mr. Chase. They appear incapable of seeing that this is a poor compliment to the Chief Justice, and no one entertains deeper contempt for their maneuvers than Mr. Chase himself. The friends and organs of the Prosident are all shouting in concert to-night for Mr. Chase as the Democratic nominee in the next Presidential campaign. To give the report an air of probability, they say that a People's Convention shall be called, and that Mr. Chase shall be nominated without a platform, if he will act on the trial of Mr. Johnson in a manner acceptable to them.

DR. HOWE, of Boston, who is authority on Cretan matters, writes that the insurrection is not at an end; that the war is suspended only because the Turkish soldiers no longer venture out of the fortresses upon the coast into the interior, and that as soon as they do the Cretans will again assail them. He also says that the "bloody instructions" to starve the whole Christian population of the island by destroying all vegetation, are returning "to plague the inventors;" and the Turkish garrisons are suffering from scurvy and like disorders. Their only supply of fresh provisions is from Asia Minor and Egypt.—N. Y. Times.

Mortuary Report.

The following were the interments in the city of Pittsburgh for the week commencing March 8th, and ending March 15th, 1868:

| | | | |
|---|---|---|---|
| Males ..... 9 | White.....19 | Total.....19 |
| Females ..10 | Colored ..... 0 | |

Of the above there were: Under one year, 4; from fifteen to twenty, 3; from twenty to thirty, 4; from thirty to forty, 3; from forty to fifty, 1; from sixty to seventy, 2; from seventy to eighty, 2.

The following were the diseases: Small pox, asthma, two each; consumption, pneumonia, four each; cholera morbus, puerpal fever, debility, bronchitis, typhoid fever, tabes mesentinca, peritypalitis, one each.

The Indiana Democrat comes to us this week as fresh and shining as a paper can well be. It is a quarto, too, which is another sign of increasing prosperity, for which we congratulate it in spite of its heterodoxy in politics.

At Work Again.

For some weeks past our sister city has enjoyed a season of rest from the annoyances of burglaries and robberies, and the executive authorities were beginning to complain of the extreme dullness of the times; but the relief, it seems, was only temporary, as the professionals resumed business on Wednesday night. A carpenter shop on Ohio street, near Sycamore, was entered through a window, the shutter of which was pried open. A number of tool chests belonging to men employed in the shop were broke open, and all the more valuable tools stolen. The same night the Vineyard Saloon, in Duquesne borough, Wm. Reeness, proprietor, was burglariously entered, probably by the same parties who robbed the carpenter shop. The thieves succeeded in effecting an entrance into the bar-room by cuttting open a window shutter. The money drawer was broken open, and the operators obtained about ten dollars in money and a valuable silver huntinn case watch for their trouble. They also carried off an overcoat which was hanging up in the saloon. The shop of Mr. Hane, in the immediate neighborhood, was also visited the same night; but, although the door and windows show unmistakable signs of laborious efforts on the part of the thieves, the attempt to force them open was unsuccessful. The Allegheny police were "working on" the "cases" yesterday, but as yet have found no clue to the robbers.

Deserved Compliment.

Justice Ammon, of East Birmingham, has been re-elected to his position by an everwhelming majority, and one which affords him a complete triumph over a few who recently endeavored to cast aspersion on his private character. Messrs Walter, Beck and Foell, all very worthy, intelligent and capable gentlemen, have been chosen by equally flattering majorities as members of the Council of that borough. We are glad that Mr. George E. Slocum, a fit and representative citizen, has been elected by a large majority Burgess of the borough, a position he will fill with credit and distinction to himself and constituents.

A FALLACY.

Some people think that Chronic Dyspepsia may be cured by exercise and diet alone. This is a mistake. The stomach must be stimulated and regulated, and the liver and the discharging organs put in good working order before a cure can be effected. Such is the operation of HOSTETTER'S BITTERS.

"They tone the stomach, set the liver right,
And put the stomach in such healthful plight,
That good digestion waits on appetite."

Many persons fancy that Fever and Ague can be avoided by adopting unusual precautions against damp and cold. Never was there a greater fallacy. There is no absolute safeguard against malarious maladies, except HOSTETTER'S BITTERS.

"To brace the frame, and make it ague-proof,
To keep the causes of disease aloof,"

There is nothing like this genial vegetable invigorant. So, too, in cases where there is a predisposition to biliousness; the constitutional tendency is combated and held in check by the alternate action of the BITTERS.

Diet and regimen are powerful allies of judicious medical treatment when the preservation of health in insalubrious localities is the object in view; but the will not answer the desired end alone. Use them as aids to the BITTERS, but do not rely upon the efficacy of any formula that does not include this admirable tonic. The BITTERS consist of an unadulterated vegetable essence (unrivalled among stimulants,) medicated solely with herbs and roots of acknowledged virtue as tonics. It is agreeable to the taste and perfectly harmless. Even to children of delicate constitutions it may be given with perfect impunity. In fact, with these, as with those of older growth, its wonderful recuperant properties are at once apparent.

ANOTHER CURE OF DEAFNESS.

I lost my hearing during the last year. Part of the time I was totally deaf. In April of this year I was induced, from an advertisement, to make application to DR. KEYSER, 120 Penn street, Pittsburgh. After having tried various medicines from doctors, without any benefit, I have been under Dr. Keyser's treatment now for nearly two months, and am entirely restored to my hearing, so that I can hear a pin drop. JOHN SCANLAN,

Coal Bluffs, Washington Co., Pa.

ANOTHER CURE.

A man called to-day at Dr. Keyser's office to inform him of a great cure made by his LUNG CURE, or PULMONARY RESTORATIVE. Whilst these cures are made with the Doctor's preparations, he desires it to be distinctly understood that most of his great cures are made in accordance with the established laws that govern the science of medicine, in which he has been engaged for the past twenty-five years. Last week he was also in receipt of a letter from a clergyman in the State of Ohio, detailing another most wonderful cure.

FINANCE AND TRADE.

OFFICE OF THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE, FRIDAY, March 20, 1868.

The opening quotation for gold rather favored a decline; the market was weak at 138¼ to 138⅜ until noon, when from lower quotations of bonds in London and more ease in the loan market, the premium jumped from 138¼ to 138⅞ with large purchases; towards the close, the market was easier but steady.

Government bonds were dull and tending downward during the week, which was accounted for by the large sales of bonds made by Commodore Vanderbilt on a weak market, in order to better sustain his position in the Railroad struggle between the Erie and New York Central cliques. At the close the market improved about ¾ per cent. for 5-20s, and ⅛ for 7-30s. If the present prices are maintained for a few days, then the market may advance before the close of the month, but on the first a large amount of bonds is likely to come on the market to meet maturing obligations.

Stocks are fluctuating, but Western shares and Fort Wayne have improved two per cent. within a few days. The stock market is in the same condition as the bond market. The amount of currency afloat on April 1st will decide the current of the market.

Money is very scarce, but good business paper can be used at from 8 to 10 per cent., although a large amount of four months' paper will be charged 12 to 15 per cent.

—Financial circles in New York are greatly excited over a report that Secretary McCullough has been locking up greenbacks; and also that he intends to lay up 7-30s. It is reported in Washington, however, that Secretary McCullough says that the first statement is without foundation and untrue and that the balances now on hand in the Treasury and Assistant Treasuries are considerably less than they were at the beginning of this month. As to buying 7-30s the Department had come to no conclusion in the matter, and no special instructions had been issued. The Assistant Treasurer at New York was acting under general instructions, and he must use his own judgment in the matter.

IRON AND NAILS.

OFFICE OF THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE, FRIDAY, March 20, 1868.

There is quite an active demand for Nails, some of our manufacturers having more orders than they can fill, and there seems to be an increased inquiry each succeeding day. For manufactured Iron, there is also an increasing demand, and that, too, in the face of the recent advance, and it looks now as if the hopes of our manufacturers in regard to a good spring, would be fully realized. Stocks, both here and all over the country, are very much reduced, and our mills are all in full blast, and everything connected with the iron trade of Pittsburgh presents a more cheerful appearance. ## PITTSBURGH MARKETS.

OFFICE OF THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE, FRIDAY, March 20, 1868.

There are no new characteristics in the general markets worthy of special notice. We can report a steady demand for all the leading commodities, while so far as values are concerned, there are no remarkable changes.

GRAIN—Wheat is firm and higher—$2,50 to $2,53 for Red, and $2,58 to $2,60 for White. Oats appear to be less active and a shade easier, though prices are without quotable change; 68 to 70c, on wharf and track, and 73 to 75c, in store. Corn is dull, with offers to sell in elevator at $1,05, free on board cars without finding buyers; sale of 1 car prime Ear at $1, and sales of Shelled, on wharf, at 95c to 97c. Rye is in good demand at $1,75 to $1,80. Nothing doing in Barley, though it sells readily at $2 to $2,10.

FLOUR—Is quiet and unchanged; we continue to quote at $10,50 to $11,25; Winter Wheat at $12 to $12,50, and fancy brands at $14 to $15. Rye Flour is selling to the trade at $7,25 to $7,50, and in store at $8,25. Buckwheat is still quoted at $4,50, PROVISIONS—Bacon is firm but unchanged; regular jobbing sales at 11½ to 11¾c for Shoulders; 13½ to 15c for Ribbed and Clear Sides; 16½c for Breakfast Bacon, and 17 to 17½c for Sugar Cured Hams. Prime kettle Lard, 15¾ to 16c, in tierces, and 16¼c, in kegs. Mess Pork, $25 to $25,50. Dried Beef, 21½ to 22c.

SEEDS—We can report small sales of Cloverseed in store at $8, and Timothy at $2,75. Flaxseed in demand, and may be quoted at $2,40 to $2,50.

BUTTER—Is scarce and in good demand, and prime to choice Roll may be quoted firm at 48 to 53c.

EGGS—Quoted at 24@25c.

DRIED FRUIT—Peaches firm but unchanged; regular jobbing sales at 11@11½c. Apples steady at 7@8c.

GREEN APPLES—In steady demand and in limited supply, and we continue to quote at $4 to $6, as to quality.

POTATOES—Firm and in good demand but unchanged. Prime Peach Blows, $3,25 per bbl.

HAY—Weighmaster McNulty, at the Allegheny Diamond Scales, reports sales of 46 loads of Hay at $20 to $25 per ton; one load of Straw at $10; and one load of husks at 3c per lb.

LARD OIL—Is firm but unchanged; regular sales of No. 2 at 98c@$1, and $1,28@$1,30 for No. 1.

BEANS—Scarce, and tending upward; we now quote at $4,50 to $5 per bushel,

HOMINY—Is unchanged; regular sales at $6,25@6,50 per barrel.

CRANBERRIES—Are being sold at from $15@17 per bbl.

PITTSBURGH PETROLEUM MARKET.

OFFICE OF THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE, SATURDAY, March 21, 1868.

CRUDE—The market for Crude is firm, and prices are still tending upward. We can report a sale of 1000 bbls for March or April, seller's option, at 8¾c; and 5000 for May at 9¼c. June may be quoted at 9¼c, and July 9½c, though there were no sales for these deliveries. An Oil City telegram reports as follows: "Market firm; sales on creek at $,280; also for next three months at $3,05 here; spot oil quoted at $3,15. River eleven feet and falling."

REFINED—The market for bonded oil is quiet but firm, and while there were no sales reported, prices are gradually tending upward. Spot oil is quoted at 24¾c; April at 25 to 25½c; May at 26 to 26¼c, and June at 27c. All the year, buyer's option, may be quoted, in the absence of sales, at 32c. Notwithstanding the improved prices, sellers are about as scarce as ever, giving as a reason, and it is a very good one, too, that Crude keeps relatively higher than refined—if the latter advances a quarter the former is sure to go up a half.

PITTSBURGH DRUG MARKET.

OFFICE OF THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE, FRIDAY, March 20, 1868.

There is a steady demand for goods, and at fair prices. Since our last review, we report a further advance in Citric Acid, Iodine of Potassium, Cardamon Seed, and Castile Soap, but have no other changes of importance to note.

The manufacturers of Castor Oil in St. Louis and other western markets have recently adopted the plan of selling by the pound instead of by the gallon, and we note the same rule coming into use in New York. Like all other innovations, this custom will have its disadvantages as well as its merits.

It may be more convenient for those who sell by the original package, but the small jobber will continue in all probability to measure a gallon in preference to weighing eight pounds. We clip the following from the New York druggistt Price Current:

The New York drug market has been active, and the sales of the past week have been on a more liberal scale. In Gum Arabic a better feeling prevails, cable dispatches from London, Friday last, report an advance; our advices from Alexandria, Egypt, state a great reduction in stock on hand, and that higher rates have been paid for immediate delivery. In Opium, the New York market rules feverish, two of the principal importers have been so far successful as to concentrate the bulk of Opium in this country, into their own hands, and have bought up the odd lots offered here and in Boston, are now holding their stock for an advance. Messrs. Lenman & Kemp have issued another of their Opium Circulars, and this time we ere glad to see that they have actually given the real stock of Opium in London, which is about 334 ch. against 282 chests as compared with the corresponding period of 1867, showing an increase of 52 chests in favor of this year.

New York Dry Goods Market.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

NEW YORK, March 20.—Dry goods were without much change. Lancaster prints are reduced to 12 1-2c, with ready sales. Other calicoes not affected; heavy sheetings 18a 18 1-2c for best makes; prices are somewhat irregular; Augusta also 18c; Atlantic H, 17 1-2c. Bleached muslins lower: Forrest Dale and Bartlett, 17 1-2c; Hills Semper Idem, 18c; James, 17c; Blackstone, 16 1-2c; Bates, 20c, Market was more active with a reduction.

Live-Stock Sales in Kentucky.

The Lexington Observer gives the following sales four miles from that city, on the Harrodsburg pike, last Tuesday: Horses sold at from $80 to $190, according to quality; milch cows from $60 to $95; two year old heifers $40; yearlings $39; yearling steers $50,25; calves $32,25; stock hogs $8,00 per 100 lbs; sheep $6,25 per head, supposed to weigh 120 lbs; corn in the crib, $3,35 to $3,65; oats supposed to be fifteen acres $95. Time, four months. Stock thin.

St. Louis Cattle Market.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

ST. LOUIS, March 20.—Cattle in moderate demand at 5a7¾ gross. Choice Sheep in fair request; common dull and prices range from $2a6,00.

RELIGIOUS INTELLIGENCE.

The Joint Committee of the General Assemblies of the Old and New School have completed their labors and adjourned. The result of their deliberations is not definitely known, as its action is to be reported first to the respective Assemblies before being made public. From different sources we learn that advanced steps were taken on the basis of union, over the previous overtures, and, which are more likely to harmonize the two branches, than the former plan. The vote, too, on the basis of re-union was taken standing and was unanimous. The scene, when the final action was taken, was impressive and thrilling. Thanks were tendered by Dr. Stearns for the blessed and harmonious result, and then, hand in hand forming an unbroken circle around the Chairman, Rev. Dr. Beatty, the members sang "Praise God from whom all blessings flow." In this circular chain the members of the two Schools made alternate links in almost every instance, and the whole expressed the perfect oneness of heart which all felt. It is represented that there were many and difficult questions solved, requiring a thorough canvass, of which the most important were the doctrinal basis, the publication agencies, the mixed churches and Theological Seminaries. But it is believed all these questions were satisfactorily adjusted.

Reference has already been made to the reprimand of Rev. S. H. Tyng, Jr. at the Church of the Transfiguration, New York City, last Sunday, by Bishop Potter, and of the protest from Rev. Dr. S. H. Tyng. Immediately thereafter, the friends of the "admonished" assembled at the Church of the Mediator, at which a committee, consisting of Rev. Drs. Cotton Smith, Dyer and Canfield, and others, were appointed to make the necessary arrangements for a public meeting, and to prepare a protest for adoption thereat. A resolution of sympathy with the Rev. Mr. Tyng, in view of his public reprimand, was passed. The discussion at the meeting though spirited and at times excited, was kept in proper bounds. Some urged immediate withdrawal, and the organization of an Episcopal Church worthy of the name. All thought that a crisis was at hand, had indeed arisen, and one that required great wisdom, caution and circumspection. As the matter is to come before the General Convention, and as the feeling hitherto has been to remain in the Church, and endeavor to reform it, we do not share in the fears of some that a schism is likely to occur at present. Rev. Dr. Ridgely counseled that systematic efforts should be adopted, and the constituency educated to demand the abrogation of the canon by the General Convention. One or two of the speakers announced their determinatiou "to accept the first invitation to preach in a Methodist meeting-house, if all the High Churchmen and Bishops in the land should remonstrate." The meeting of the General Convention will be looked for with interest.

Rev. H. M. Garnett, formerly a missionary from the Scotch Church, in Jamaica, has accepted of an invitation to take charge of the Avery College for colored persons in Allegheny City.

The National Baptist thinks the object of a dictionary is not to indicate the opinions, theological, or political, or philosophical, of the author, but the exact definitions of words according to the rules governing them. It assumes that Dr. Worcester is unbiased in his opinions, and yet his definitions of baptized, and its cognates, might have been written by a Baptist, while those of Dr. Webster plainly show that he was not a Baptist.

The Universe (Catholic) admits that, at this moment, and for many years past, the Irish Catholic sick poor of Philadelphia have been, in the majority of instances, taken care of by Protestant benevolence. It says this is a great honor to Protestant liberality, but a disgrace to Catholic pride.

Rev. Morgan Dix, D. D., of the Episcopal Church, in a recent discussion, affirmed that the Episcopal Church did not require the reordination of a priest coming from the Catholic Church, but that ministers coming from the Presbyterians and Congregationalists are always re-ordained without any exception.

The Independent says the richest congregation in New York, except that of Trinity Church, is one of Jews, who are building an elegant synagogue on Fifth avenue. The next in point of wealth is that of St. Bartholomew, which numbers William B. Astor and Com. Vanderbilt among its pew-owners.

The spirit of union is of a broader type in California than is seen in the older States generally. It would seem from the intelligence from the Pacific coast, that the Congregational, Methodist, Episcopal and Presbyterian churches of Stockton, Cal., united in union services. Quite a number of conversions are reported. Many members of the Episcopal Church are interested workers in the meeting and give their hearty support. Elder Knapp, the noted Baptist revivalist is now laboring at San Francisco, "to help the cause of Christ and the Close Communion Baptists in that city," while at Stockton he did not work with other denominations.

According to circulars issued by the American Unitarian Association, the sum of $107,000 was contributed in 1865, to aid in the circulation of its publications. In 1866 but $65,000. But in 1867, though nearly at the close of the financial year, only $25,000 had been contributed. It is alleged that this falling off results from what is termed the "double policy" of the Board, compelling the Association to "that of facing two ways at once," owing to the blending of non-evangelical and evangelical members of the Board. One of the churches states that they cannot consistently contribute to the funds, "until the Association is strongly, avowedly, evangelically, unequivocally, and unalterably Christian.

Formerly the Vine Street Congregational Church in Cincinnati, Ohio, of which Rev. Henry D. Moore, formerly of this city, who has just been formally installed pastor, was Presbyterian in its ecclesiastical relations, and had such ministers as President Mahan and President Blanchard for pastors. The Independent refers to its trials, and what it has accomplished in radical and reformatory matters, and thinks its future promising.

Just as a young man, the son of Rev. G. W. Woodruff, of New York, a Methodist minister, was breathing his last, a faithful Catholic girl, who had been in the family since he was 11 years old, and who waited upon him during all his sickness, offered the touching and earnest prayer, "Lord Jesus, for his patient suffering during these long months, let him into Heaven." Her kind heart, says Zion's Herald, had been so impressed with his enduring patience that, following the teachings of her Church, she confidently urged it before God as a reason for his salvation. He died in triumphant faith in Christ.

Rev. A. M. Stewart, who resigned the pastorate of a Reformed Presbyterian Church in this city, to become Chaplain of the 102d Regiment of Pennsylvania Volunteers, recently Post Chaplain at Gisboro,' D. C., will visit Nevada during April, under the auspices of the Missionary Society of the New School Presbyterian Church.

Elder John Smith, in early life a Baptist preacher, but afterward united with the Disciplies, died in Missouri on the 28th ult., aged eighty-three. He is said to have been a man of great activity, both of mind and body. In 1828 he delivered five hundred and twenty-three discourses, besides numerous exhortations; had three public debator, and babtized with his own hands seven hundred and five persons. In that year his wife took the hoe and went into the field to help to make bread for the family, while he persued his reglious labors.

The Liberal Christian (Unitarian) admits that their people indulge too much in play going, and party going; and that they are relaxing their hold in the social and satisfactory realities of life.

The First Cumberland Presbyterian Church in this city, Rev. Mr. Squires pastor, is enjoying some revival power, and promises to be an interesting work of grace. Five persons united with this Church on last Sabbath. Next Thursday evening, the 26th, the Sabbath School of this church will give a concert, in the church, for the benefit of the poor.

Probably Fatal Shooting Affair.

A shooting affair occurred Wednesday evening about five o'clock, on the line of the Pittsburgh, Columbus and Cincinnati Railroad, about five miles west of Steubenville, which in all probability will result fatally to Mr. William Brew, foreman of Division No. 13, on that road. It appears that some weeks since Mr. Brew discharged from his employ Michael Vaughn, on account of his ill nature and disagreeable temper. Since then Vaughn has shown a strong hatred toward his former "boss," and at the time mentioned, while Brew's men were repairing the track near Gould's station, and while the five o'clock train was approaching, Vaughn, armed with a double barrelled shot gun, which he had loaded with slugs, crept up behind Brew, and shot him in the left side, the whole charge of slugs taking effect and producing a wound which it is thought may prove fatal. The noise of the train prevented the report of the gun being heard, and Vaughn had escaped before the fact of the shooting became known. Only a few nights ago Mr. Brew's house was burned, we are informed, and his family barely escaped with their lives. It is supposed that Vaughn set fire to the building.

A Stolen Watch Recovered.

Two years ago Messrs. Dunseath & Haslett, the well known jewelers on Fifth street, sold a fine gold watch to a gentleman in New Castle for two hundred and seventy dollars. One year ago the watch was stolen from the owner by an unknown thief. Yesterday, singular to say, it was left at the jewelry store where purchased for repairs by a man giving his name as Michael Shannon. Mr. Dunseath immediately recognized the watch as the stolen one, and had its reputed owner promptly arrested. On being taken to the tombs, Shannon told several conflicting stories in accounting for its possession, but finally stated that he had bought it from an unknown Englishman for eighteen dollars. There will be a hearing in his case to-day.

Wall Paper in Variety.

The season is at hand for spring papering, and housekeepers will devote themselves to the selection of suitable and attractive coverings for walls and ceilings. The well managed and representative wall paper house of Messrs. Joseph R. Hughes & Bro., No. 107 Market street, near Fifth, is prepared for the usual increase in trade with a very large and varied assortment of all the latest patterns, styles and qualities. Their selection is entirely new and embraces all the richest and costliest, as well as the humblest and cheapest papers. Their new style parlor, hall and chamber varieties will prove very attractive to purchasers. The firm sell at but small margin over manufacturers and importers' prices, and as a matter of economy we advise our readers to favor them with a call.

THE COURTS.

District Court—Judge Hampton.

Crispin Dorer vs. Borough of Birmingham. Verdict for plaintiff for $1,500—subject to opinion of Court on question of law reserved.

Matthew McKraham, for use of Edmund Snowden, vs. Executors of Edward Crawford, deceased. Verdict for defendant.

Peter McCullough & Co. vs. F. Alpret & Co. Plaintiff took a non-suit.

Common Pleas—Judge Stowe.

In the case of Lindsay vs. Lindsay et al., the jury had not yet agreed upon a verdict.

R. F. Weddell et ux. vs. A. Guckenheimer & Bro. Jury out.

Wm. Burns vs. Jacob Aungst et ux. On trial.

Geo. Dimmy vs. Edward Allen. Verdict in favor of plaintiff for thirty dollars.

Quarter Sessions—Judge Mellon.

In the case of Henry Weidner, charged with rape, on oath of Mrs. Kezziah Evans, residing in East Birmingham, the jury returned a verdict of not guilty.

Robert Blose, indicted for fornication and bastardy, pleaded guilty, and was remanded for sentence.

Wm. Redpath, indicted for aggravated assault and battery, put a plea of guilty of simple assault and battery, which was accepted, and he was sentenced to pay a fine of fifty dollars and costs.

Charles Wilson was convicted of the larceny of thirty-five dollars from Mr. Carson, of the firm of Carson, Darlington & Co., and sentenced to an imprisonment of one month in the county jail.

Mrs. Kearney, a resident of the Seventh Ward, indicteed for illegal liquor selling, put in a plea of guilty. Sentence deferred.

Robert Wilson was convicted of the larceny of a caddy of tobacco and remanded for sentence.

Bartley Davis, indicted for the larceny of a box of glassware, the property of Bryce, McKee & Co., from the Monongahela wharf, was found guilty and remanded for sentence.

Peter Finegan was tried on an indictment charging him with malicious mischief, in casting a stone through a window of the tavern of J. B. Bates, corner of Canal street and Spring alley, on the 17th of December last. The defendant, it appeared, became enraged at being refused liquor and was ejected from the tavern, whereupon he threw the stone (or brick-bat), breaking a large pane of glass, the replacing of which cost the tavern keeper fifteeh dollars. The defendant was sentenced to pay a fine of fifteen dollars and costs.

Joseph Cavanagh, gas fitter, was tried on an indictment charging him with malicious mischief, in undertaking to remove gas and water fixtures from a building on St. Clair street. The prosecutor was a Mr. Newton, who claimed the fixtures as his property. The lease of the building, which had been held by James Hague, deceased, was sold at sheriff's sale, and the purchasers assigned it to Mr. Newton. For the defence Mrs. Hague testified that she had placed the fixtures in the building, and had employed the defendant to remove them. Jury out.

John Lynch was indicted for selling liquor on Sunday, on Gist street, Eighth ward, on oath of Dietrich Formhalz. It appeared that no less than six different like charges had been preferred against Lynch by Formhalz, before a magistrate, but the Grand Jury ignored all but two of them. Jury out.

Heavy Forgeries—The Consequences of Fast Living—The Perpetrator "Non Est."

In the GAZETTE of yesterday we alluded to the fact that heavy forgeries had been committed in this city recently and cited some of the particulars in the case, omitting, however, the names of the parties and other interesting facts for prudential reasons.

The alleged forger, James Johnston, proprietor of the St. Lawrence hotel, and a heavy street contractor, it appears has for some months past been in considerable difficulty, financially, and a large amount of his paper was thrown on the market, the holders of which, becoming weary, went into an investigation of his affairs, through which it transpired that he was not only involved financially but had been illegally using the names of his father and brother-in-law.

Among the first to discover the latter fact were S. McClean, Jr., and Thomas Collins, the former holding notes of Johnston to the amount of $1,200, and the latter $433. They immediately instituted civil suits to recover the amount, upon which Johnston confessed judgment, and under direction of the parties a levy was at once made by the Sheriff on the hotel, fixtures, &c. While the gentlemen named were securing themselves from loss, other parties holding notes were inspecting and inquiring into the securities held by them, which in every case were pronounced forgeries. The aggregate amount of the forgeries thus far ascertained will probably reach $12,000, but this sum may be increased.

The operator has been pursuing this line of business for some time past, and he played his game so carefully that he escaped suspicion until Monday. His father, Mr. Robert Johnston, who resides in Washington county, is wealthy, and his brother-in-law, Mr. D. Gilmore, of the firm of Gilmore, Straub & Co., brewers of Allegheny, is also in good financial condition. The standing of the parties named assisted him in his operations, and he has been enabled to defer his detection by making new notes and lifting the old ones when they became due. Among those who hold his notes are the following: Union National Bank, $1,500; T. Ewing, Esq., $1,000; Citizens National Bank, $2,000; S. Hare, $1,000; J. Schlelein, $1,900; —— Patton, grocer, $600; J. A. Mazurie, $400; Patrick & Co., $500; S. McClurkan, representing insurance company, $2,200; G. McLean, Jr., $1,500; Thos. Collins, $432. Some of the notes in possession of the banks had been sent in for collection, and of course they will escape to that extent, but others were discounted by them, and to their loss.

A petition had been filed by Mr. G. S. Head in the U. S. District Court, for the purpose of forcing Johnston into bankruptcy, and thus securing an equal division of his property among his creditors. The petitioner claims that Johnston is indebted to him to the amount of $2,000 on a promissory note, given for value received, dated November 12th, 1867, and payable two months after date at the Citizens National Bank, upon which the names of Robert Johnston and D. Gilmore, as well as that of Mr. Head, appear as endorsers. The alleged act of bankruptcy set forth in the petition is the confession of judgment to Messrs. McClean and Collins, and his departure from the State. A hearing on the rule will be had next Wednesday. An information charging him with forgery has been made by Mr. S. M'Clurkan, but as he did not deem it proper to leave his address, he may escape arrest.

John B. Gough.—The sale of secured seats for the course of three lectures to be delivered by Mr. Gough next week commences at half past two o'clock this afternoon, at the Academy of Music. Mr. Gough has announced this as his last season of public lecturing. Those therefore desiring to hear the greatest of temperance orators must improve the present opportunity. But the mere announcement of Mr. Gough will insure him overflowing housea.

Alderman Butler.—Elsewhere we publish the professional card of our highly esteemed friend, Joseph A. Butler, Alderman and ex-officio Justice of the Peace for the Sixth ward, whose office is at No. 126 Wylie street. Alderman Butler is one of our most careful and efficient magistraies, and has ever merited the confidence and respect of his fellow citizens.

Eighth Ward Mission School.—Rev. R. Audley Browne, of New Castle, member of the State Senate, will deliver an address before the Eighth Ward Mission Sabbath School to-morrow (Sunday) evening, at seven o'clock.

Transaction on 'Change.

Last night the proprietress of an aspiring and well-kept apple stand in the neighborhood of the Union Depot, becoming weary of watching for a wholesale or retail purchaser of pies or bologna, took an innocent nap, closing her eyes to all the cares and vicissitudes of the peanut life. Along came a fellow with more style than conscience and not much of either. In he went for the money drawer and out he came with eighteen dollars, nearly a year's gross earnings of the aforesaid stand. He made his escape and is now luxuriating on his ill gotten gains, while the sleeping owner is rubbing her eyes to realize the immensity of her loss and the wisdom of bankruptcy.

Bitten by a Monkey.—A man named Clark, keeper of some monkeys at Trimble's, shortly to be exhibited, was very seriously bitten by one of the animals last evening, while endeavoring to capture and replace it in a cage from which it had escaped. Both his hands and left wrist, and also his left leg, were very severely lacerated, requiring surgical attention. Dr. W. R. Childs, of 208 Penn street, was summoned and dressed the injuries.

Boy's Clothing.—Messrs. Gray & Logan, fashionable merchant taitors, No. 47 St. Clair street, who make a leading specialty in ready and custom made clothing for boys and youths, have an advertisement in another column, announcing a fresh spring stock of goods. Their selection will be found very fine and fashionable, and one which will prove very attractive to purchasers. Their prices are very reasonable. See the advertisement.

Special Religious Services at the Academy of Music, Liberty street, on Sabbath afternoon, commencing at 3½ o'clock. Held under the auspices of the Sabbath School Teachers' Union. All persons are invited who are not in attendance at public worship elsewhere. Seats free to all. Earnest Christian workers, ministers and laymen visiting our city are cordially invited to attend and also take part in the exercises.

Messrs. Kay & Co., the enterprising and extensive book and stationery dealers, No. 65 Wood street, Lafayette Building, monopolize a full column of our editorial page this morning with a special announcement of their readiness to meet the demands of the Spring trade, with a very large steck of new goods, which embraces everything peculiar to their line. Do not fail to read their advertisement.

The magnificent new store on Fifth street, of Messrs. Reineman, Meyran & Seidle, the completion of which was seriously delayed by a recent fire, will be opened on the first of next month with one of the largest, finest and most complete stocks of jewelry ever brought to Pittsburgh. See the announcement card in our advertising columns.

Accepted.—Rev. J. H. W. Stuckenberg, an able pastor of Indianapolis, has accepted a call to fill the pulpit of the English Lutheran church of this city. The vacancy there will be filled by Rev. H. L. Baugher, of Gettysburg, Pa.

At No Cost.

What a doleful sound do these words convey to arrant quacks, who make physic and Cayenne pepper or turpentine liniments for a living. Dr. Wolcott, at 170 Chatham Square, New York, and 622 Arch street, Philadelphia, in the Drug Store, stops all pain at no cost. He condemns all pills, physic, or medicines of any kind taken in the stomach, and shows most conclusively, by his circular, that all who swallow medicine are always sick and complaining. He proves beyond all denial that all pain can be removed by an application of Pain Paint, whether the cause of pain be inside of the body or on the surface. It certainly proceeds from inflammation and Pain Paint removes inflammation faster than any other known remedy. It never smarts, leaves no color, is the safest remedy for a small puny infant or aged person that can be used. It invigorates the whole system, and cures the most hopeless case of paralysis of the longest standing. Relief comes at the very first appliction. Druggists sell ten times more Paint than any other remedy, at 25c., 50c., $1, and $5 a bottle. Dr. Wolcott is also the inventor of the only standard remedy for Catarrh and colds in the head, the Annihilator, which has the written endorsement of over 1,000 physicians and chemists of New York. If a remedy is of value let it be proved at once. Turpentine and pepper liniments have utterly failed, and very few fools are silly enough to purchase a heating liniment for the purpose of stopping heat and inflammation. Dr. Wolcott has offered the manufacturers of these worthless nostrums of a past age $100 if they will prove in public that they can remove pain for ten persons in 100 who apply. $1,000 more if they will produce a remedy that removes all pain as soon, and is as harmless as Pain Paint.

The people pause for an answer.
Pills and Physic begging go,
Our people will not buy,
But send it off to Mexico,
The sugar coated lie.

An Organ "Galloping" into Favor.

A most remarkable piece of musical mechanism, in the shape of an organ, representing the vox humana, (human voice,) is creeping, or rather galloping, into public favor. It is known as the "Burdett Organ," whose tones, no not tones merely or abstractly considered as such, but whose utterances are made to excite almost any emotion of the human heart, whether of joy or sorrow, at the will of the performer, and cause the listener to wonder how it lives without eating or drinking like human beings. Those enterprising gentlemen, H. Kleber & Bro., 122 Wood street, Pittsburgh, have it for sale and would be pleased to exhibit to those who desire to witness its powers, the wonderful capacity it possesses to inspire our minds, stir our hearts, and mingle its tender and touching sympathies with those of the human breast. It is said that one gentleman, on visiting this amazing specimen of human invention, for the second time, so far forgot himself that he actually addressed it—"Good morning, Madame!"

Vanpelt & Webber

Persons having "work" there are requested to call and take it away before the first of April. Mr. Webber will still continue in the business at Nos. 2 and 4 St. Clair street, near the Suspension bridge, in conjunction with Mr. Albee, where he hopes to see his old patrons, and merit a continuance of their favors. They will have the quickest working light in the city, and will do quite an extensive business in taking life-size portraits. Mr. Albee will pay his attention to landscape views, private residences, sample work, &c., steroscopic and plain. Mr. Albee has had large experience in this line of work and in it has no superiors in the country. All persons who call will be afforded perfect satisfaction.

Important to the Ladies.

The Weed Sewing Machine, by its success at the Paris Exposition and at the Fairs of this country, is distinguished before the world as the queen of household convenience. What "gentle lady" will hereafter continue her martyrdom at the needle, when, even if her means are limited, a little economy will enable her to put aside such wearisome toil among the things of the past? The possession of a Weed Machine would permit her to take up a happier and more generally useful life.—New York Independent.

R. H. Long, agent for Western Pennsylvania, office 112 Grant Street.

Weed does not take fits or spells when you want it to sew.

A Home Institution.

Through long years the steam dental establishment of Dr. George W. Spencer, No. 254 Penn street, has enjoyed more than a full share of the patronage of the community. Its high reputation is appreciated throughout the States contiguous to our own, as well as in this, our immediate neighborhood. The Doctor's grand secret of success may be summed up in very few words. He advertised liberally but made no representation to deceive readers, nor held out inducements, which he could not keep good, to those who were attracted to his rooms. He performs all work satisfactorily, leaving nothing quit his laboratory that will not sustain and increase its high reputation. He promptly introduces into use all the really valuable discoveries made in the scientific world and pertaining to the dental art. Other reasons might be assigned for the great popularity of Dr. Spencer's dental depot, but our readers are already sufficiently acquainted with its merits. Teeth are here manufactured, a large force of skilled artists being constantly employed in the steam dental factory, and are fitted in the most skillful manner to the mouth to be supplied. Plugging, extracting, filing, adjusting and all other work pertaining to the teeth is attended to in the most satisfactory manner, and at the most reasonable rates. Remember the place, No. 254 Penn street.

Catarrh Cured—Testimonial from Hon. M. C. Beebe, of Pleasantville, Pa., Late Member of the House of Representatives.

Dr. Aborn, No. 134 Smithfield street, Pittsburgh, Pa.—Dear Sir: Some five years ago my son Willie commenced showing symptoms of Catarrh of the Head, which continued to grow worse until his system was so debilitated as to preclude an active enjoyment of the sports of childhood or pursue any system of study, or attend at school, and at times was entirely prostrated with lingering fever—some times, for weeks together, with a constant manifestation of the symptoms of the disease, such as a constant hacking- nostril discharges, &c., irritation of the throat, &c., causing nausea. All the usual appliances and treatment of physicians, &c., had failed to afford relief, until you were applied to during your professional visit at Titusville last winter, when he began to improve immediately after commencing your treatment, and continued to improve until now he enjoys a good state of health, and is able to participate in the active sports of childhood with zest, as well as pursue his studies without interruption. I have omitted to make this statement heretofore, as I wished to be satisfied that the relief was permanent.

M. C. BEEBE, Pleasantville, Pa.

Chronic Disease.

There is no chronic disease that will not be benefitted by taking half-a-dozen bottles of Dr. Keyser's Blood Searcher. Witness the many cures it has made in the vicinity of Pittsburgh alone, some of them after years of pain and suffering, and of a character to compare favorably with the most astonishing cures ever recorded in medical annals.

All the cures that we have published time and again, have been made by it, and anything else sold under the name of Blood Searcher, upon the merits of these cures, is a fraud and cheat. Hundreds of persons are deceived in this way by spurious trash that has no more affinity for the blood of man than the acrid poisons it proposes to remove. A lady whose child we are curing told us recently that she had sent to as many as half a dozen places to obtain Dr. Keyser's Blood Searcher, and was met with the answer, "this other was just as good." Another lady, who was cured by four bottles of Dr. Keyser's told us she had spent seventeen dollars for as many bottles of spurious, which had done no good. No one, who will reflect for a moment, can help but detect the motives which led to such imposition. One man told us boldly that he didn't care what merits were contained in it, he would sell that on which he could make the most money, as if human health and life were to be weighed in the scales with dollars and cents. Reader, when you want Blood Searcher, cut this out, and ask for Dr. Keyser's, and take no other !!!

Prepared and sold at the Doctor's great Medicine Depot, 140 Wood street.

Dr. Keyser's resident consulting office for lung examinations and the treatment of obstinate chronic diseases, No. 120 Penn street, from 9 A. M., until 4 P. M.
